MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Personnel

Eck:

Reference is made to our meeting with Colonel White today and my subsequent telephone discussion with you. I ask that you personally arrange the schedule for the presentation so that it will be carried out smoothly. By 14 September I would like to have:

a. A draft of remarks to be given by the Director at the ceremony.

b. A revised schedule with the timing of each event on the schedule.

Meanwhile, I will call George Carroll concerning the timing of the Vice President's visit.

Director of Personnel

The attachment to the memorandum from the Director of Personnel gives the sequence of events at the proposed 6th Annual Awards Ceremony. You indicated that you wished to clear this with the Director. If it meets with approval, I will so advise the Director of Personnel and modify his proposal to the extent that the program will proceed up to the point of the Vice President's address in the event that the Vice President is delayed.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT

: Sixth Annual Awards Ceremony

- This memorandum submits a recommendation for your approval; this recommendation is contained in paragraph 5.
- Transmitted herewith is the proposed program schedule for the Sixth Annual Awards ceremony planned for 19 September 1966. The program content has been planned with the expectation that the Vice President will attend.
- 3. As in past years, we propose that the following individuals be seated on the stage: the Director, the Executive Director, the Deputy Directors for Plans, Support, Science and Technology, and Intelligence. and the Director of Personnel.
- 4. There is some uncertainty as to whether the Vice President will be able to attend the ceremony. If he is unable to be present, we propose to include a feature of last year's ceremony, i.e., the Executive Director will introduce those employees in the audience who were nominated for Public Service Awards as well as awardees for Safe Driving and significant suggestions. There is also the possibility that the Vice President will be up to fifteen minutes late since he will be coming directly from the airport. If this is the case, the organist will be prepared to play appropriate music during the interim

The attachment to the memorandum from the Director of Personnel gives the sequence of events at the proposed 6th Annual Awards Ceremony. You indicated that you wished to clear this with the Director. If it meets with approval, I will so advise the Director of Personnel and modify his proposal to the extent that the program will proceed up to the point of the Vice President's address in the event that the Vice President is delayed.

(It is anticipated that the Vice President's remarks will last about five minutes. At the conclusion of the Vice President's remarks, Mr. Echols will adjourn the ceremony and request the audience to remain at their sents until the guests on stage have left. The audience will rise and applaud, on cue. As the guests leave, the organist will play brisk, martial music, e.g., "Stars and Stripes".)

The Vice President will accompany the Director to the Director's Office for lunch. An invitation to stay for lunch was included in the Director's letter of 9 August 1966, inviting the Vice President to the ceremony.
